The Pang family, along with the KŌ and Kealani Ohana were all unprepared for this devastating loss. His legacy will live on in all the lives he's touched.

He is survived by his Wife, Mary-Jo, Son Timothy, (Step) Daughters Malia, Moani and Miki'ala, Hanai Son

Ryan; Grandchildren Slayder and Kealia; Sisters Jody (Robert) Domingo, Ani Pang, Tami (Raymond) Orozco, and Mari (Dennis) Chan; Nephew Kealoha (Claire) Domingo and many, many Cousins, Nieces, Nephews and extended family.

"You never said I'm leaving, you never said goodbye. You were gone before we knew it, and only God knew why. A million times we needed you, a million times we cried. If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died. In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still. In our hearts we hold a place that no one could ever fill. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone. For part of us went with you, the day God called you home."

I had the honor of spending time with him when he lived on Kauai and Oahu where he enjoyed throw netting on the Coconut Island Pier. Aloha to a great friend. Miranda Ohana.

Chef Pang was a great mentor, boss, friend and leader. Chef lead by example and guided all his fellow team members to perfection. Chef was in the trenches when needed and was not afraid to get his hands dirty side by side with his crew. Chef was the best boss and friend to me. His favorite quote "never let them see you sweat". He never did crack under pressure. Words I try to live by since he taught me that life lesson. Chef, you have always been my hero. Until we meet again. RIP.
