I have lots of fond memories of Beautiful Aunty Annie, but one of my favorite is when she invited me to the Royal Lahaina Hotel with she and Gina (6th grade) and we helped to set up the JUICE ISLANDS on the buffet line. I felt like I was doing such an important job. I was so proud and she assured me that I was doing a good job. I surely wanted to make sure I did it right. I believe, that got my interest in FOOD AND BEVERAGE, so that's what I did for many years. I saw how friendly and happy Aunty was with her guests and co-workers. She was a very fine example of an " Aunty ALOHA "
