G lenn Marsteller

Glenn, 72, of Maui, Hawaii, passed away on June 22, 2023.

He passed away in Wailuku, Maui at his home while surrounded by family and listening to his favorite songs that were special and loved by him and his family through his life...such as I Can Only Imagine by Mercy Me which was also special to his late father. Summer Breeze by Seals & Crofts, that is inscribed inside his and his wife's wedding rings. Also, Reflections Of Love by Hillary Stagg, a song listened to often in his home while his children were young. A few weeks before he passed, Glenn talked about how while listening to the classical flute and harp song by Hillary Stagg he could see his soul leaving at his most favorite part of the song and soaring above the clouds, up over the West Maui Mountains to Heaven to be with the Lord. Glenn was called home and went to be with Jesus exactly at the moment his family played his favorite song and his favorite part of the song started. He was unable to talk but his family felt in their heart they should play the songs that were special to him. Only after he passed did his family remember what he had told them about the song weeks before.

Glenn Way Marsteller the Second was born in Youngstown, Ohio on August 23rd, 1951 to his parents Glenn Way Marsteller Senior and Margaret Marsteller. He was raised there with his little sister Jackie Marsteller (Jackie Anderson). Glenn later moved to California with his family in 1965 and attended Grossmont Highschool. He often spoke of the things he missed about Ohio such as a cherry tree in his backyard as a kid and the salamanders in the stream he would visit. He also loved to share the many adventures with his family and friends he had in California after meeting his love Lyn Marsteller when they were young. They went down The Grand Canyon Rapids, often went skiing in Big Bear California, and often went hiking and camping. After getting married in August of 1977 in Coronado in a little white steeple church, later having a Hawaiian themed wedding on a boat in San Diego, Point Loma Harbor. Glenn and his wife Lyn continued their adventure to Tahiti for their honeymoon where they fell in love with the island way of life. In July 1983 Glenn and Lyn were blessed with their first son, Glenn Way Marsteller the Third and decided to continue their adventure in Hawaii, moving to the island of Maui in 1986. There Glenn and his wife were blessed with two more children Auston Marsteller and Sheila Marsteller, now Sheila Oldenburg.

Glenn had many wonderful adventures with his family while spending the rest of his life on Maui. Everywhere his family looks on the island they have many wonderful memories! Glenn's love for his family and friends was constant and he was always there for them.

He loved being involved in his church, handing out Daily Breads and attending Bible studies. He recently started a new prayer group at King's Cathedral on Maui called Gideon 300. Glenn is survived by his 94-year-old mother Margaret Marsteller, his wife Lyn Marsteller, his three children; Glenn Marsteller the Third, Auston Marsteller, Sheila Oldenburg and his five grandchildren; Levi Marsteller, Liam Marsteller, Arabelle Oldenburg, Kyriella Oldenburg, and Amari Rose Oldenburg. He also is survived by his niece and nephew from his beloved late sister Jackie Anderson; Kelli Morgan and Kevin Anderson and their children; Great nephews Andrew Morgan, Ian Morgan, Asher Anderson, Jack Anderson, and a great niece named Eva Anderson. Glenn will be greatly missed by his family and dear friends, and many look forward to seeing him again one day in Heaven.

I feel very blessed that God chose my dad to be my father. He loved Jesus with all his heart and had endless love for his family and friends. He always shared The Good News of our Lord with everyone. He was the pastor of his family and a witness for the Lord everywhere he went, planting seeds of God's Word. I am so thankful that my dad planted a seed in my heart that has grown into a sincere love for God. One of my first memories of him.. is him kneeling next to me telling me about Jesus and helping me accept Him into my heart. I remember him explaining to me when I was very young, how an eternal seed has been planted in my heart and now it needs nurturing with the light of God, and His living water. I can still see him holding an imaginary watering can showing me how God will water the seed in my heart and how my love and faith for God will grow and blossom forever. I have many wonderful memories ... one of my most favorite early memories of my dad is .. being on the island of Maui at Baby Beach when I was little with him, my mom, and my 2 big brothers ..and my dad encouraging us to run down the sand dunes and jump as far as we could, pretending to fly. He was always full of excitement as we would run as fast as we could, trying to fly as far as we could before landing in more sand dunes . He had cool bird nicknames for my brothers and I..like The Albatross, The Falcon, and The Eagle.. my brothers and I were so proud when he would call our bird names and it was our turn to take off and fly. That memory reminded me of a Bible verse my dad and his dad often said to us "Those who hope in the Lord WILL RENEW THEIR STRENGTH. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint. ISAIAH 40:31 I know when Jesus took my dad home he soared on the wings like eagles and he has been renewed forever more, never to grow weary. For Jesus said in John 11:25 "I Am The Resurrection and The Life. The one who believes in Me will live, even though they die. We know he is home in heaven right now celebrating today and forever with the One who created him. My dad loved Psalm 139:13-14 For you created my inmost being; you knitted me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My dad now knows full well the splendid and wonderful works and glory of The Lord as he stands in His presence. He will never be in pain again or have to experience the hardships of this world. I look forward to seeing my dad again someday at home in heaven .. today I prayed to Jesus to find him wherever he is in heaven and give him a big hug for me and everyone and tell him how much we love and miss him. My dad would often share with me how thankful he was knowing how blessed we are to know The Way, The Truth, and The Life, Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. . and to know we will always be in His loving hands and presence forever.. our heavenly Father, who's love for us is unfailing and eternal. As my dad would always say "God is Good, God is Good All the time!"
