Gregoria V. Valle

Our dearly cherished mother, Gregoria V. Valle, passed away on October 14, 2023, leaving us with profound sadness. She graced this world for 89 years, and her presence was a source of boundless love and warmth. Gregoria was not just a remarkable mother; she was our guiding light. She nurtured nine children, pouring her heart into each of us alongside her beloved late husband, Fernando. What brought her the greatest joy was the precious moments spent with her cherished ones. Her radiant smile and infectious laughter were constants in our lives. Her passion included her family, tending to her blooming garden, and watching her beloved game shows. Her greatest role was that of a devoted caretaker for her beloved grandchildren. These moments were not just the best of her life; they were a testament to the boundless love she had for her family. Gregoria's love will forever remain etched in our hearts.

Gregoria was predeceased by her beloved husband Fernando Valle, daughter Adela Valle and her son's Geronimo & John Valle.
