Tom's Son: Thomas Jon Kala'i Borges Jr.

Tom moved to Maui from Honolulu at the age of 12, 7th grade. Son of Deacon Joseph Borges of St. Anthony Church. He was a devout Catholic.

He volunteered as an usher at Mass at St Anthony Church.

He is the Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus St Anthony Chapter not for the whole island of Maui.

Class of 1978 from St. Anthony High School. Quarterback of the football team. Basketball Captain.

Also, a Track and Field athlete. Football was his favorite by far.

Tom was the General Manager of Sugar Beach Resort in Kihei.

He spent his whole life on Maui. When he did leave it would be to Vegas. He loved to play Texas hold'em poker. His father was the first person from Maui to graduate from the University of Notre Dame. So, he was obsessed with Fighting Irish Football.

Services will be held at St. Anthony on Saturday the 28th.

I had the privilege of working beside Tom at the airport and remember his kindness and keen sense of humor . It was always a pleasure when he was present . Maui has lost a treasured soul . May his family take comfort in his memory and joy in knowing he is loved . May the four winds blow him safely home .

Phenomenal father to Ang, Shanelle, Des, Lisa, and TJ... and one of the most genuine men I had the pleasure to know. Always had us laughing at any opportunity. Wish you, me and my mom could've had one more lunch in Vegas, but we'll have forever to catch up and hang out in heaven one day. Rest in Christ's glory and love now Uncle Tom. You'll be missed and are forever loved!
