Idalinda Bio Visitacion

JUL 17, 1935 - SEP 12, 2024

Idalinda “Ida” Primitiva Bio Visitacion, 89, of Kahului, Maui, passed away peacefully on September 12, 2024, at Maui Memorial Hospital.

Ida was born on July 17, 1935 in Bangued, Abra, Philippines. After immigrating to Maui in 1946, she attended and graduated from St. Anthony High School, class of 1957. Following her graduation, Ida married her first husband, Bernardo G. Barbero, in 1958, embarking on her journey into motherhood with three sons. Sadly, she was widowed at a young age when he passed away in 1964. In 1967, she married Leonides Visitacion, with whom she had three additional children. They enjoyed 48 years of marriage before she was widowed once more in 2015.

Ida devoted her life to being a loving wife and mother. Although she briefly worked as a life insurance agent, her primary focus remained on nurturing her family. She was also employed at Clyde Shoe Store, Central Pacific Bank, Roland’s Shoe Store, and the County of Maui Department of Motor Vehicles Driver's Licensing Division as a translator.

Ida is survived by her children: Bernard (Virginia) Barbero, Wilburt “Wilipaki” Barbero, Lee Anthony (Tanya) Barbero, Lisa Ann Visitacion (Micah Sean) Moore, Juliet Bio Visitacion (Errol) Hammonds, and Dan Leo Visitacion. Her legacy continues through her grandchildren: Marlana Barbero, Desmond (Sarah) Barbero, Brent Barbero, Cameron (Kaylin) Moore, Jewel King, Elisa Hammonds, Caitlin Moore, Isaiah Barbero, and Ivah Barbero. She also leaves behind great-grandchildren: Zaylen, Rashad “RJ,” Graceson, Juelz, Syre, and Brody. Ida will be deeply missed by her siblings: John (Mona) Bio, Corazon “Cora” (Patrick) Constantino, and Rosie (Joe) Villa, along with sisters-in-law Carol Hebert, Patricia Kikkawa, and Mercedes Jamias, brother-in-law Moises Mendoza, and numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her parents, Francisco and Catalina Bio; her brothers, Mariano and Beato Bio; and her sister, Clara Bio Mendoza.
