Rosemary Robbins

JAN 20, 1941 - OCT 12, 2024

Rosemary Robbins passed away 10/12/24, at age 83. Born in Boston, Rosemary lived in Maui from 1982-2024. Rosemary was a school teacher with a Master's degree in teaching. As an active volunteer, she certified lifeguards and taught children to swim. A devout Catholic, Rosemary taught confirmation classes and attended mass regularly. Rosemary is survived by her 2 children and 2 grandchildren who live on the mainland. The family will hold a private ceremony for Rosemary. The family asks that any flowers or gifts be donated to the charity of your choice in the name of Rosemary Robbins. Mahalo.

We, at St. Rita's Catholic Church Haiku, Maui, Hawaii was very saddened by the passing of our sister in Christ. Rosemary was a true blessing. We all enjoyed going to the Passover feast at the Haiku Community Center given by her Confirmation students. It was a true family affair. Thankyou Mrs. Robbin's for your giving of yourself to get our young adults confirmed in Faith. She will be greatly missed, as she served in many other ministries. She was a member of the Neocatechumenal Way until she no longer was able to drive. God bless your soul Rosemary. And our condolences to her son and wife and daughter and husband. Not sure. Your ohana in Christ. Your sisters and brothers of St. Rita Church
