Akeakamai Ō'ilika'iopiliikapali Nae'ole

MAR 15, 2024 - OCT 15, 2024

Akeakamai 'Ō'ilika'iopiliikapali Nae'ole, was born March, 15 1989. He is the hiapo (First born) to Clifford Nae'ole (April - Spouse) and Mother Teresa Nae'ole. He is survived by many Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and friends on Maui. The UK family are Joyce and Brian Chalkley (Grandparents), Aunt Victoria, cousins Jade, Daniel and Cherish and his godfather, Uncle Nick (deceased) as well as many aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was the oldest of three siblings.

Emma Hali'a Lokelani (sister-deceased), Kūlia (sister) and Ke'eaumoku (brother). Akeakamai also known as Uncle Biggz loved his nieces Lilah Rose and Emalia Rhae Nae'ole-Sauceda. Also, his only nephew Rhyden Waiohu. He was also loved by his Uncle Iokepa of Maui and Aunties Rochelle and Leihua on Oahu. And not to forget his godmother Sandy Ryan with Kaulana and Kaina who Akeakamai grew up with.

He is a graduate of Pūnana Leo O Maui Hawaiian preschool. Followed by Kula Kaiapuni until graduation from King Kekaulike High School.

He spent most of his time down at the beach, with his fishing pole in the water just waiting to hear the fishing bell ring! He was a true Tampa Bay Buccaneers fan! If you know Akeakamai then you know he loved his football! His loud laugh was contagious. Just hearing his laugh made everyone crack up. Akeakamai had the most gorgeous smile ever!

On October 15, 2024 Akua called our beloved Akeakamai home. He fought a long battle against diabetes. No more pokes and prods. He is now a guardian angel who watches over all of us.

Akeakamai is now flying free with all our loved ones. And will always surround us with his love and protection.

A poem to honor Akea's English heritage,Following the death of King Edward VII, in May 1910, Henry Scott Holland delivered a sermon titled Death the King of Terrors. The sermon discussed the fear of the unexplained and it inspired his best known poem: 'Death is nothing at all'. Death is nothing at all.It does not count.I have only slipped away into the next room.Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was.I am I, and you are you,and the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged.Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name.Speak of me in the easy way which you always used.Put no difference into your tone.Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together.Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant.It is the same as it ever was.There is absolute and unbroken continuity.What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?I am but waiting for you, for an interval,somewhere very near,just round the corner. All is well.Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost.One brief moment and all will be as it was before.How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!

Akeakamai 'Ō'ili ka 'io pili i ka pali Nae'ole Hiapo—the first born of the first born of the first born in your makua kāne line. It was my great privilege to be your Godmother these past 35 years. I told you often that I loved you, and you said the same, but I regret not thanking you for being the first of so many firsts for me. Your presence in my life taught me how to Mother. I love you, Godson. From our first photo together to our last, and all the milestones in between, I miss you and will hold your memory always, Love Aunty Sandy xx
