EBELING, Alexis Marie

DEC 11, 1947 - DEC 2, 2024

In Loving Memory of Alexis Marie Ebeling (December 11, 1947 – December 2, 2024)

Alexis Marie Ebeling, a cherished resident of Maui, passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of love, kindness, and devotion. The island was not just her home but her haven—a place of happiness, inspiration, and serenity that filled her heart with peace. She cherished her independence and embraced life fully, staying true to her heart and her values.

After retiring, Alexis spent her golden years with gratitude, finding fulfillment in the simple beauty of island life. Her deep faith in Jesus Christ was her foundation; a source of strength and hope. She often shared stories of God’s miracles —His healing touch, His blessings, and his guiding presence.

Alexis carried her family in her heart each day, quietly hoping they would discover the same peace and love that sustained her. She will be remembered for her gentle strength, unwavering faith, and profound connection to the island that brought her so much joy.

Her family and friends find comfort in knowing she has found her eternal home in the arms of her Savior, free from pain and filled with everlasting peace.

Alexis leaves behind her sons Calvin and Daniel, her brother Paris, her sister Sari, and her grandson Jacob, who will carry her love and example in their hearts forever.

Rest in aloha, Alexis. Maui will forever carry your spirit.
