Juanita Venezuela Della

MAR 8, 1936 - DEC 12, 2024

Juanita Venezuela Della March 8, 1936 - December 12, 2024 Juanita V. Della, 88, went home to be with the Lord, peacefully at her home in the Philippines on December 12, 2024. She was born in Silag, Sta. Maria, Ilocos Sur, Philippines to Saturnino and Cresencia Venezuela. She was the eldest of 5 children. At age 24, she married her childhood sweetheart and neighbor Marcelo Della, a marriage that lasted 62 years. Her husband being an agriculture technician by profession, their main livelihood was in farming. In 1981 she immigrated with her family to Maui, USA for a better life. In Maui, the couple's home became the "Welcome and/or accommodation" center for many of the extended family members arriving from the Philippines. She worked as a housekeeper/housekeeper inspectress at Kaanapali Marriott Hotel until her retirement. When she became a grandmother, she helped raise her 5 grandchildren. At retirement, together with her husband, they spent doing what they both loved: growing a vegetable farm, many varieties of bananas and many kinds of fruit bearing trees which they sold to the Filipino markets to help support the church that they founded in the Philippines and also shared to family and friends. Juanita enjoyed traveling with her husband going annual trips to their birthplace in Silag, Sta. Maria, PI. where they built a home and a church. She traveled with her family across Hawaii, USA and Israel. Juanita Venezuela Della is preceded in death by her husband Marcelo Salvador Della. She is survived by her two daughters: Agnes (Arthur) Obrero and Tessie (Wayne) Dumalanta; five grandchildren: Marc Dumalanta, Christian (Samantha) Dumalanta, Vaughn Dumalanta, Arielle Obrero and AJ Obrerol; great grandkid: Malia McConnell Dumalanta. She is also survived by her siblings: Bonifacio(late Erlinda) Venezuela, Domingo (Erlinda) Venezuela, Remigio (Natividad) Venezuela and Herminia (late Pepito) Degracia; cousins, nephews and nieces. Juanita will be remembered for her strong faith in God, love of family and friends, her generosity, humility, sweetness and kindness. Wake service

To my dearest Auntie Aning, Three and a half decades ago, you told me: Study and be a nurse so you come to America. You touched other people's lives in that way and I couldn't be more grateful for your love, generosity and strength. To your 4 siblings, you were the epitome of a perfect big sister, guiding each of them in the best, most loving way only you can. I weep because we were supposed to meet once more. But I know you're now safe in Uncle's embrace, and that is my solace. When I think about how you lived your life, I am in awe. You had so much to share, and yet you were so humble. You were a perfect wife and partner to Uncle. You were a strong mother and woman. You had integrity and your faith was unrelenting. You modeled hard work, even when you didn't need to work hard anymore. I miss you, Auntie. When you meet my brother, please tell him he is also missed. And that he was loved. As we go on living, we will reminisce the good times and how you weathered the rough seas. And how, when it was time to go, you went peacefully and quietly into the night.
