

Lionel "Blue" G. Miyagawa

MAY 23, 1950 - JUL 9, 2025

Scan to Visit

MAUI MEMORIAL PARK
NAKAMURA MORTUARY
CEMETERY, CREMATION & FUNERAL

Table of Contents

|                           |        |
|---------------------------|--------|
| Obituary .....     | Page 3 |
| Tribute Wall ..... | Page 4 |

Lionel "Blue" G. Miyagawa

MAY 23, 1950 - JUL 9, 2025

In Loving Memory of Lionel “Blue” Miyagawa May 23, 1950 – July 9, 2025 Lionel “Blue” Miyagawa passed away peacefully at home on July 9, 2025, surrounded by his loving family. A devoted husband, father, grandfather, and brother, Lionel lived a life defined by quiet strength and a passionate love for the ocean and his ‘ohana. He is lovingly remembered by his wife, Gail Miyagawa; his children, Gary (Pam) Miyagawa, Beth (Todd) Ayotte, and Marcie Miyagawa (Tyson Omura); and his grandchildren, Kyson Omura, Kylie “Blue” Omura, Sachi Ayotte, Mahie Miyagawa, and Robbie “Blue” Miyagawa. He is also survived by his brother, Don Miyagawa (Kat), and sisters, Janice Toyama and Sandy Pasion (Ron)—each of whom held a special place in his heart. At Lionel’s request, a private family service will be held. The Miyagawa ‘ohana extends their sincere gratitude for the love, prayers, and support received during this time of loss.

Tribute Wall

Lionel "Blue" G. Miyagawa

MAY 23, 1950 - JUL 9, 2025

LM

Lea Ann Miyagawa posted:

As one of Lionel's cousins who lives on the Mainland, I didn't see him often. However, when I did, it was like we just picked up where we left off the last time in a very comforting way. I always appreciated that about him. I feel so grateful that on my last visit to Maui this past April, I visited Lionel while he was having dialysis. We talked stories--he made me laugh and tear up at the same time. He talked about his love for his kids and family and how his grandchildren made him so happy. Even though his body was giving out, he wasn't ready at that moment to let go. He told me he wanted more time with family. When it was time for me to leave the dialysis place, I gave him a hug. I left him in his recliner eating the snacks he had packed, wearing his blue tinted sunglasses, and adjusting the channel on the TV. As I turned one more time looking over my shoulder at him, he gave me his smile and waved. I will miss you Lionel, but I get a little smile on my face knowing you are no longer suffering and don't have to go to anymore dialysis appointments! Love you cuz, Lea Ann Miyagawa

July 20 at 4:53 PM

LM

Lea Ann Miyagawa posted:

As one of Lionel's cousins who lives on the Mainland, I didn't see him often. However, when I did, it was like we just picked up where we left off the last time in a very comforting way. I always appreciated that about him. I feel so grateful that on my last visit to Maui this past April, I visited Lionel while he was having dialysis. We talked stories---he made me laugh and tear up at the same time. He talked about his love for his kids and family and how his grandchildren made him so happy. Even though his body was giving out, he wasn't ready to let go. He told me he wanted more time with family. When it was time for me to leave the dialysis place, I gave him a hug. I left him in his recliner eating the snacks he had packed with his blue-tinted sunglasses on, adjusting the channel to the TV. As I turned one more time looking over my shoulder at him, he gave me his smile and waved. I will miss you Lionel, but I get a little smile on my face knowing you are no longer suffering and won't have to go to any more dialysis appointments! Love you cuz, Lea Ann Miyagawa

July 20 at 4:44 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Lionel "Blue" by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

MAUI MEMORIAL PARK
NAKAMURA MORTUARY
CEMETERY, CREMATION & FUNERAL