Sherman Dudoit, 69

“Where there is Light, darkness cannot exist. Introduce the Light... you are a Lighthouse”

- Sherman Dudoit

Sherman Charles Dudoit Jr., 69, of Kula, transcended October 25, 2025, at Maui Memorial Medical Center in Wailuku. He spent the last 13 months of his life living in a cottage in Kula that he called “Heaven on Earth”. Before this for 25 years he lived in his beloved cottage sanctuary of Peace and Awakening in Makua, Maui.

Sherman was born July 8, 1956, in Volcano, Hawaii. He was the son of Mr. Sherman C. and Mrs. Caroline Dudoit, Sr. He leaves behind to cherish his memory, his mother Caroline, his brother, Bruce A. Dudoit, of Maui, a brother, David Vida, of Washington, a daughter, Samisty Dudoit of Garberville, CA and his grandson Kayden.

Sherman was a Kahu or “Master of Old Style Lomi Lomi” with many students, local and international, in Australia, the United States, and Sweden. He taught the healing Lomi Lomi massage, meditation, and wisdom teachings of Ramana, the Sage from Arunachala, India, which answers the question: “Who am I?” and leads to self-realization awakening. He inspired many to understand and reach for the light. Please visit
